Warning council is on 'verge of collapse'

by Philip Evans
philip@pemedia.co.uk

SEATON Town councillors have been urged to show more commitment to their roles after one councillor said that the council was on a verge of collapse.

The issue was put forward during last Monday's full council meeting, when a number of councillors felt that there was a lack of involvement from certain members.

The agenda item read: 'In view of the recent inability of the council to fulfil its responsibilities and obligations, due to the lack of involvement by a number of councillors and there non attendance we propose the following…'

Councillors Dawn Squire, Gaynor Sedgwick and Heather Sanham proposed three policies including the matter that all councillors should be an active member of at least two committees. Councillors felt that members should share the workload and all contribute equally towards the work for the town.

Councillor Squire said: "It is important that everyone on the council pulls their weight, plays a part and shares the enormous work load amongst themselves so we can actually achieve good work across our meetings of both the full council and committees.

Councillor Sedgwick added: "I feel that the council are on the verge of collapsing.

"There are a number of things that we are all invited to but its seems that the same two or three councillors are turning up to things and lack of attendance at committee meetings means we are forced to cancel.

"Some councillors are taking their business very seriously but it seems that others don't give a damn about their meetings."

But Councillor Bob Palacio disagreed stating that he felt that 'each meeting had a weighting depending on who requested it.'

Mr Palacio argued that when the recent extraordinary meeting called to discuss the departure of the town clerk was proposed, that nobody supported it and a quorum wasn't reached, so it seemed unfair to say that one meeting was more urgent than another.

In response Councillor Val Christmas said: "Lack of attendance to the extraordinary meeting wasn't done for any trivial reason.

"The meeting was called at rather short notice and I for one had other commitments. Other committee chairs call meetings and often we don't meet the quorate or the meeting is cancelled so I think it is unnecessary to just bring up that one meeting [as an] example."

Councillor James Semple also criticised the complaints about a lack of support from members and said: "A meet-

Annual town meeting set for this Thursday

SEATON residents, businesses and organisations are invited to come along to the annual town meeting this week.

All are welcome to join in the event which will be held this Thursday (April 18th) at 7pm at Seaton Town Hall.

Members of Seaton Town Council hope for as many local groups, organisations and volunteers as possible to attend the meeting and are looking forward to celebrating the work of the town and its achievements in the past year.

Alongside a number of short presentations from local groups, guests will be able to enjoy tea and cake, and a presentation of the work of the town council with the chance to express views and give ideas on what they would like for their town.

For more information, call 01297 21388, email admin@seaton.gov.uk or pop into the town council office based at Seaton Town Hall.

CORRECTION

LAST week we incorrectly gave the address of the UKIP candidate for the Devon County Council Seaton Coastal electoral division, Warwick Knowles, as Maple Close, Seaton. Mr Knowles is in fact a resident of Fore Street, Bradninch. We apologise for any confusion.

Quotes of the week...

"CLOAKHAM would have been extremely helpful but, in my own personal view, the pension fund may have forced some sort of financial restructure, as with it, the company would have continued to make substantial payments (to a scheme in which some at the company would now had little involvement), but most importantly – made bank funding extremely difficult and a harder proposition to support.

Josh Dutfield, managing director of the newly formed Axminster Carpets 2013 Ltd, commenting on whether the sale of land at Cloakham Lawn would have saved the old company.

"I FEEL that the council are on the verge of collapsing. There are a number of things that we are all invited to but its seems that the same two or three councillors are turning up to things and lack of attendance at committee meetings means we are forced to cancel. Some councillors are taking their business very seriously but it seems that others don't give a damn about their meetings.'

Seaton councillor Gaynor Sedgwick calling on members to show more commitment and saying that the town council was "on the verge of collapse".

"TO ME she was just like an ordinary woman. I took her upstairs to wash her hands because she had touched all the calves. She asked if she needed more lipstick on before tea. I said she didn't but she looked in the mirror and said she thought she better. She admired my patchwork quilt on the bed and spoke about things any other woman would. She was quite different with the men though. I think she was a very pleasant person. She kissed me goodbye, which really surprised me,"

Farmer's wife Jean Underdown recalling the day that Margaret Thatcher visiting their farm in Colyton in 1986.

"IT WAS quite a thing to witness. For a young lad it was quite an exciting thing to do.'

Octogenarian Jim Board, of Colyton, talking about witnessing the run-up to D-Day when he worked as a 14 year-old at Dunkeswell airfield.

Millwey 's first ever county cup

A HAT-TRICK from Sam Dibling helped Millwey Rise to their first ever Devon Intermediate cup after a 5-1 victory over Bideford-based Northside Atlantic at Newton Abbott last Wednesday evening.

Rise manager Kevin Turner told Pulman's View Sport: "We were nervous for the opening 15 minutes but the goal eventually settled us. They went more direct after the break and came into the game more.

"Ashley's (Hall) penalty save was crucial. He was awesome and pushed Sam (Dibling) for the MoM with some superb saves at vitals moments – he certainly repaid my faith in selecting him.

Over in the South West Peninsula league Sidmouth Town are due to face third from bottom Plymstock this weekend. Town are currently on a three-game unbeaten run, albeit all draws, and will go into the game full of confidence in the quest to climb off bottom spot. Sidmouth narrowly lost 2-1 in the reverse fixture earlier in the season. This weekend's fixture promises to be just as tight with both sides fighting for every point. Axminster Town travel to Budleigh salterton tomorrow (Wednesday) in the quest for their first win in eight league matches.

This week's local news in numbers

£30m THE amount of the black hole in Axminster Carpets' pension fund which impacted greatly on the company surviving.

£64,911.88 THE total raised by a group of 30 cyclists who pedalled to Turin last October to raise money for charity in memory of Uplyme girl Phillippa Corbin.

£42,000 THE sum invested by East Devon District Council in the Elizabeth Road play park in Seaton which has been reopened by the Mayor of Seaton, Councillor peter Burrows.

NEWS AT A GLANCE IN EAST DEVON THIS WEEK

AXMINSTER

Resignation over planning row

AXMINSTER'S newest councillor Ian Hall, a member for just 14 months, has resigned over the town council's alleged "inadequate efforts" to investigate any local implications over a planning controversy.

Mr Hall resigned with immediate effect on Tuesday of last week – the day after fellow councillors decided to defer a proposal that the town council should formally ask for an investigation to see if a former district councillor exerted inappropriate influence over planning applications for Axminster.

An overall investigation is already under way after East Devon District Council (EDDC) contacted police, but Mr Hall wanted the town council to go on record and formally request an investigation into matters specifically relating to Axminster.

In his letter of resignation to the council, Mr Hall wrote: "My resignation is due to, what I have decided as, inadequate effort from the council on the very contentious issue of Section 22 of April 8th agenda of Axminster Town Council.

"I have enjoyed my time serving the residents of Axminster and will continue to do so, albeit in a different capacity."

The precise wording of the agenda item which sparked the resignation was: "To propose that Axminster Town Council recommends that full investigative action be taken by the district council to establish that no planning decisions affecting Axminster were reached as a result of any inappropriate or illegal influence exerted by former district councillor Graham Brown."

Mr Brown resigned from EDDC after being filmed by a national newspaper, apparently suggesting he could influence the planning process in his role as a planning consultant.

OTTERY St MARY

Gas fitter put lives of family at risk

A GAS FITTER from Ottery St Mary has been given a suspended sentence after falsely claiming to be on the Gas Safe Register and risking the lives of a young couple through dangerous work.

Luke Potts, of Cornhill, Ottery, was given a 20-week custodial sentence, suspended for 18 months, and ordered to carry out 60 hours of community service. He was also ordered to pay £1,000 in costs after pleading guilty to three separate breaches of the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998.

Mr Potts, who trades as Devon Plumber, installed a new gas boiler at a home in Chelmsford Road, Exeter, in May 2012 that was classed as "immediately dangerous" when checked by a Gas Safe registered engineer.

Putting ghosts to rest

MORE details emerged this week on the deal that has saved Axminster Carpets.

We were granted an interview with managing director Josh Dutfield, bizarrely not face-to-face but by a telephone conference call organised by the new company's PR advisers.

We requested and would have preferred a face-to-face interview, a courtesy extended to the BBC, but had to be satisfied with submitting our questions and the having a chat over the phone.

I have written in this column before that when you are fighting to save a company and jobs, dealing with the press comes a long way down the list of priorities.

Hopefully, when things settle down, there wil be an opportunity in the future when we can sit opposite Josh Dutfield at his desk for an update on how the new company will be moving forward.

The result of that telephone interview can be seen on page 7 of our Axminster edition and on our website (www.viewfrompublishing.co.uk) for those who see our other editions.

The interview does give some idea of the determination of Josh Dutfield, the fourth generation of his family involved in carpet manufacturing,to find a solution, and it does put a few ghosts to rest, particulary the effect the controversy over the sale of land at Cloakham had on the survival of the old company.

It would seem that had the company been able to proceed with the sale, delayed by the Save Our Parkland's call for a Judicial Review of the EDDC decision to grant outline planning permission, it "may have" allowed the old company to have continued in some way. In the end, however, it was a whopping great £30 million hole in the pension fund that did for it and there will be many asking how that situation was allowed to happen.

The good news, however, is that more jobs could soon be created at the carpet factory and there is a determination by the financial backers and new management team to see Axminster Carpets back at the top where it belongs.

This newspapers wishes Josh and his team every success in this aim and we look forward to the day when we are able to question him on the successes of Axminster Carpets 2013 Limited – face to face.

◆ The tragic death of a toddler and two teenagers in a house fire at Honiton horrified all communities in East Devon.

The tragedy showed Honiton at its compassionate best, especially the manner in which residents responded to appeals for help and assistance for the family involved.

When the enormity of the tragedy became clear, residents of the Lee Close found themselves the centre of attention as the media descended en masse. Great anger over intrusion of private grief was expressed on the social networking sites.

This newspaper played no part in that circus. We paid one brief visit to the site to take a photo of the floral tributes (not revealing the names of the victims), did not knock on any doors and waited for the police to issue photos and tributes to the three who lost their life.

SEATON

Council on verge of collapse claim

SEATON Town councillors have been urged to show more commitment to their roles after one councillor said that the council was on a verge of collapse.

The issue was put forward during last Monday's full council meeting, when a number of councillors felt that there was a lack of involvement from certain members.

The agenda item read: 'In view of the recent inability of the council to fulfil its responsibilities and obligations, due to the lack of involvement by a number of councillors and there non attendance we propose the following...'

Councillors Dawn Squire, Gaynor Sedgwick and Heather Sanham proposed three policies including the matter that all councillors should be an active member of at least two committees. Councillor Sedgwick said: "I feel that the council are on the verge of collapsing."

"There are a number of things that we are all invited to but its seems that the same two or three councillors are turning up to things and lack of attendance at committee meetings means we are forced to cancel."

But Councillor Bob Palacio disagreed stating that he felt that "each meeting had a weighting depending on who requested it.'

Mr Palacio argued that when the recent extraordinary meeting called to discuss the departure of the town clerk was proposed, that nobody supported it and a quorum wasn't reached, so it seemed unfair to say that one meeting was more urgent than another.

Councillors agreed that members had to be an active member of at least two committees. It was also agreed that all councillors should be required to give at least 24 hours notice of apologies for non-attendance at meetings.

Election correction

IN last week's Pulman's View we stated that the United Kingdom Independence Party (UKIP) were fielding candidates for the first time in county elections in East Devon. This was incorrect.

Jeremy Allison, chairman of the Axe Valley UKIP, has pointed out that in 2009 UKIP stood in Axminster, Honiton St Paul's and Seaton Coastal.

We apologise for this error.

COLYTON

The day Maggie donned her boots

FOLLOWING the death of Baroness Margaret Thatcher last week, Colyton residents Ken and Jean Underdown have been reminiscing about the day the Prime Minister visted their family farm during the height of her power.

Mrs Thatcher visited Road Green Farm on April 11th 1986 during a visit to East Devon. She started the day at St Loye's, College, Exeter, moving on for lunch at the Killerton National Trust site and a trip to Axminster Carpets before coming to Colyton.

The Prime Minister spent two hours touring the farm and enjoyed tea with some of Devon's farming leaders, including Mr Underdown was chairman of the Axminster branch of the National Farmers Union at the time, with the hot topic being the effect of milk quotas on farming production.

Mr and Mrs Underdown were informed the PM would be visiting six weeks in advance but had to keep it a tight-lipped secret until 48 hours before.

SIDMOUTH

New rep company at Manor Pavilion

SIDMOUTH'S Manor Pavilion has welcomed a new resident theatre company to present a programme of plays for the summer season.

Paul Taylor Mills Ltd, will be presenting the new repertory season and has a proven track record in staging productions of the highest standard, receiving rave reviews at home and abroad.

Paul Taylor Mills Ltd has taken over from the pavilion's previous long-serving company, the Charles Vance Repertory Company, which presented 350 performances at the venue.

Shortly after the company retired, following 26 years of dedication to Sidmouth's summer play festival, it was announced that Charles Vance had died.

The theatre visionary first brought the summer play festival to Sidmouth in 1987, but in January this year a spokesperson for the company said that spiralling costs meant that it was no longer possible to offer reasonable prices at the theatre.

Paul Taylor Mills is now keen to celebrate the work of the Charles Vance Company, pledging a price freeze and aiming to bring expertise and world class productions to Sidmouth.

He said: "Whilst we are unbelievably excited about the programme of productions that we will be presenting this year, it would be wrong not to mention our great sadness to learn of Charles Vance's passing.

"We hope to honour the dedication and longevity of the Charles Vance Company in continuing to present entertainment on a first class level with a new twist

"This will include a revamp of the repertory system so we are able to bring a larger selection of extraordinary talent to the Manor Pavilion, as well as bringing back Sidmouth stalwarts, including actor James Pellow."

Town council by-election

YOUR GUIDE TO THE CANDIDATES ON MAY 2ND

A BY-ELECTION for the two vacant places on Seaton Town Council will be held on May 2nd, coinciding with the election for Seaton's representative on Devon County Council.

This week we focus on the candidates for the town council positions:

ROBERT SPALDING

I AM Robert (Bob) Spalding and I am standing as a candidate in the election for Seaton Town Council.

Bob Spalding

I have lived in Seaton for eight years, have run my own small business for over 30 years and feel that I could bring some positive qualities to the council if elected.

Many of the existing councillors are friends and colleagues of mine and I have worked with them in my capacity as treasurer to the Seaton Visitor Centre Trust.

I feel sure that I would be able to work closely with them to continue the good work that is being done at the moment.

I believe that Seaton is going through a period of positive change and is beginning to take a pride in itself.

I would welcome the opportunity to be part of the team that is working to make that happen.

STEPHEN WILLIAMS

My name is Stephen Williams and I am 54.

I am supervisor for the Royal Navy at RNAS Yeovilton. I want to help bring life back to Seaton.

Steve Williams

I think the town needs:-

- More facilities and activities for the elderly and young. Let them tell us what they want.
- Increased tourism by promoting Seaton's good points like the Axe Estuary and bringing more family activities to the beach. Let's be a tailor made base for walkers along the Jurassic Coast.
- More use of the social media such as Facebook to promote Seaton not only in the UK but worldwide.
- Bring more low cost or self financing events to the under exploited Cliff Field Gardens and to Marine Place to help the struggling traders.
- Seaton desperately needs more places to stay for tourists. Let's find ways of encouraging the growth of bed and breakfast accommodation.
- An end to the counter productive seafront parking charges which Seaton sees no benefit from.
- More tourism is the best way to bring small traders back to the town centre.
- Lobby county council to reverse the short sighted measure of ceasing the weekly collection of garden waste. Even if this involves a small charge.

SUE WOODMAN

AS A former town councillor in Ivybridge when it was the fastest growing town in Europe, I want to see Seaton progress and become a lively, popular seaside town.

As a care worker for over 10 years I am also interested in the wellbeing of the individual.

I am also a Seaton trader and well aware of the problems facing the town's small shops.

I was very keen to get cheaper parking for the town and our campaign proved successful.

Parking will always be a major issue in Seaton and we must fight for a good deal, particularly with the proposal for a visitor centre on the Underfleet car park.

Sue Woodman

Where will the extra parking come from? I am keenly involved with Seaton Phoenix and support Seaton Carnival and the Grizzly and get involved with the annual Devon Air Ambulance Week.

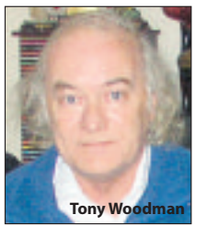
I wanted St Clare's bought as an investment for the town but the town council decided against it.

The town council needs to look to the future and it needs to have far more consultation with locals, including the chamber of commerce.

We must all work together for the good of the town and much can be achieved.

TONY WOODMAN

I WANT a Fair Deal for Seaton, as with the cut-price car parking campaign I successfully ran with my wife recently.



Tony Woodman

I fought the parking meters on the seafront and gained concessions and supported the retention of the Underfleet toilets when publishing the Seaton Recorder newspaper.

There is much to be done in Seaton and the town council needs to have a long-term plan.

It has to help retain the town's small shops and as a trader I know there is much that can be done to the town centre, including sorting out the long running pedestrianisation problems.

The town council must work with the chamber of commerce more closely for the benefit of all.

I am a keen supporter of Seaton Phoenix, the Grizzly, the carnival and the Devon Air Ambulance Week - anything to do with Seaton.

I believe there is a need for change at the town council. We need a forward thinking council with a plan.

St Clare's should have been bought for the town.

The redevelopment of the seafront is very important but it has to be done properly with people being consulted before decisions are made.

I want a Fair Deal for Seaton at local, district and county level.

Town councillors urged to show more commitment

-ing of the full council is different to individual committee groups.

"A committee has a much lower level of expectation to a full-summoned council.

"Other committees do good work but direct wide representation is not as essential.

"We have a surprisingly large number of committees and we are very underresourced, particularly with the need for all the relevant agendas, minutes and enormous admin flow with no town clerk.

"Why not combine some committees and limit the number of formal committee meetings and set up working parties to eliminate admin and trouble with lack of attendance."

In response to Mr Semple's remarks, Councillor Sanham responded: "We have always had this number of committees and they haven't changed for years.

"The work of the council is no different now than it has ever been.

"Ideas and funding come from the full council and everyone should take responsibility for that work load.

"If people want to be on the council they should take their share of work that they commit to.

"It would be so much nicer to work as a team and work together to achieve good work as a council."

Councillor Bruce agreed, saying: "Councillors should look at what they have done in the last 12 months and what they have achieved.

"It is no good just speaking verbally at meetings and making comments at full council. The people of Seaton want to see you playing an active part in the work of the community."

However Councillor Semple refused to agree, proposing that before a decision was made, councillors should wait for a new town clerk and for the upcoming by-election.

He also stated his confusion as to whether active membership of committees included the work of the personnel committee, which currently has two vacancies.

He said that the information regarding personnel committee membership and standing orders should be clarified with reference to appropriate documentation so councillors could understand how it is managed and how members are decided.

Despite his proposal, councillors agreed that the policies should be adopted and members had to be an active member of at least two committees.

It was also agreed that all councillors should be required to give at least 24 hours notice of apologies for non-attendance at meetings when possible and that all reasons for non-attendance would be noted in the meeting minutes.

TEAM EFFORT: The cyclists lined up in Axminster on October 13th last year.

Slow ride raises £64,000 in memory of Philly

AN international cycle ride which departed from Axminster raised in excess of £60,000.

Slow Ride To Turin featured almost 30 cyclists plus support crew members, and started in Axminster on Saturday, October 13th last year.

The ride was organised in memory of Philippa Corbin to raise awareness and acceptance of depression and funds for two charities -The Humans Given Foundation and The Charlie Waller Memorial Trust.

Philippa, from Uplyme, worked at River Cottage Canteen but tragically took her own life at the age of 27 in January 2011 when suffering from depression.

Each charity is about to receive £32,455,94 thanks to an astonishing response from the public. Both charities focus on helping to prevent/relieve the pain of depression and anxiety.

The efforts of the cycling team members saw them cover about 800 miles on their way to the Salone del Gusto slow food festival in Turin

Philippa's mum, Pam, said: "We are thrilled, and this amazing total exceeds far more than we had ever imagined we would raise.

"We were blessed in countless ways: the weather, the camaraderie of the 28 cyclists, the amazing places we stayed, the lovely food and meals we all shared and a safe journey for everyone to Turin.

"The most moving time for me was the route from Chambery to Col de Cenis; three breathtaking days of a cloudless Alpine autumn, where it seemed we had the road to ourselves and everything was bathed in a golden light; sunflowers, golden vines, vivid yellow leaves, sun-peaked mountains and finally, on the last morning, the yellow shuttered chapel on the mountainside.

"That same day, yet 60 miles later, our stream of yellow ducklings pedalled their way through the busy streets of Turin to arrive safely, and on time at The Lingotta Building.

"Two days later there was snow on our Alpine route, we wouldn't have made it then, quietly affirming the journey was meant to be.

"None of this would have happened but for the influence and inspirations of Philly who loved nothing more than to have an adventure with her friends and share some good food."

To everyone who supported the initiative, she said: "We could not have made this journey so successfully without your support.

"Thank you for sharing and making this journey possible; we know Philly would have loved it."

Axe Valley pedallers enjoy sun on the annual French Foray

AXE Valley Pedallers' seventh annual French Foray featured 14 cyclists who were rewarded with clear blue skies and temperatures of 15 degrees celsius.

The trip took place in late March, and AVP member Rob Watson said: "Hardly believing their luck, they cycled off the ferry into brilliant sunshine, without a breath of wind.

"After croissants and coffee in the old walled city of St. Malo, they pedalled gently along the stunning Brittany coastline to the seaside town of Cancale.

"A high mileage was never the objective of this trip – so there was plenty of time to picnic and drowse on the sand under the palm trees, or purchase wine. There were several mechanical failures on the trip, including the first ever puncture of the tandem, which itself attracted considerable attention from French onlookers, but these were easily dealt with and the group re-convened under the castle ramparts to re-enter the ferry in good order, at the head of the queue of waiting motorists, as the sun went down.

"Both ferry crossings were calm enough to enjoy some activity on the dance floor, and a tolerable attempt at sleeping was possible before arrival at Portsmouth and a friendly greeting from the UK Border Agency."

BUSINESS NEWS

No replacement yet for chairman

AXMINSTER Chamber of Commerce chairman Shane Morgan may have to stay in the post.

He told fellow chamber members during the January meeting that he will not seek re-election at the annual general meeting in May.

Arrangements were subsequently made for a smooth transition that would see current vice-chairman Duncan Colvin step up at the AGM.

But Mr Colvin has since informed the chamber that he is unable to do so.

But there were no volunteers for the post, members praising Mr Morgan and saying they were more than happy for him to stay on.

Mr Morgan, however, repeated what he had told them in January, saying: "You always need new blood. I think it is just healthy that every organisation has a change of chairman."

He also said that he is "working on a few people" but might offer to act as interim chairman after the AGM if nobody comes forward.

More jobs at the new Carpets?

UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT: Josh Dutfield answers our questions

FOLLOWING the rescue of Axminster Carpets by a new company – Axminster Carpets 2013 Limited – managing director Josh Dutfield, grandson of founder Harry Dutfield, agreed to answer questions from Pulman's View about the demise of the old company and the future for the new. These are his answers

Q: HAS the Cloakham development land been sold or not (if so, who is the new owner)?

A: It was sold to Bovis Homes as part of the administration process.

Q: WHO is the Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre landlord?

A: Technically Bovis Homes. But part of the Section 106 agreement for the planning application is that the sports centre land will be gifted to the centre itself or appropriate public authority.

This will happen when the Section 106 agreement is triggered, and will guarantee the legacy for generations to come.

◆ Editor's note: A Section 106 agreement is a part of the planning process in which a developer agrees to provide money or facilities towards certain improvements in or near the area being developed.

Q: WHERE would the company have been today had the planning consent you were given in 2010 not been subject to a legal challenge?

A: Had the challenge not been made, I think the company would have continued to trade in some structure.

Prior to administration, the legacy pension fund was independently revalued (which occurs every three years)

In short, the revaluation showed the deficit had grown significantly due to the financial markets (bond and gilt yields), like many legacy funds across the UK

With or without Cloakham, this would have caused great difficulty to the company.

Cloakham would have been extremely helpful but, in my own personal view, the pension fund may have forced some sort of financial restructure, as with it, the company would have continued to make substantial payments (to a scheme in which some at the company would now had little involvement), but most importantly - made bank funding extremely difficult and a harder proposition to support.

Sadly, many companies in the UK face a similar situation. No one 25 years plus ago would have predicted the changes in financial markets and government legislation affecting such a generous scheme.

Q: HOW will the current situation affect the provision of a heritage centre in Axminster? It is our understanding that the 'old' Axminster Carpets had pledged funding to Axminster Heritage.

A: Part of the commitment by the company, pending a sensible resolution on the judicial review, was that we would look at supporting the heritage centre - but recent events overtook us.

I will personally do what I can, but I haven't got the funding.

Q: WHAT is the current proportion of floor (blue collar) versus office workers?

A: 60-70 per cent shop floor (including drivers, despatch and manufacturing), the rest are office-based.

Q: WITH 200 people gone, parts of the Axminster site must be redundant. What are your plans for parts of the site no longer required?

A: We have always had spare space, it is a 13-acre site.

At the moment it [space used] is almost identical to before [administration]. The plan has always been to be more efficient and centralise, though.

We hope to lease or, ideally, create more jobs for the community on site.

We currently lease to a start-up garage and to ship developers.

Q: IF you could turn back time, is there something you would have done significantly different since being appointed MD of the 'old' Axminster Carpets?

A: The pension fund was started before I was born, so there is very little I could have done. As for Cloakham (the planning application), it was distracting and divided the town.

Would I do it again?

Q: IS your father, Simon (former chairman) in any way involved with Axminster Carpets 2013 Ltd?

A: He has no involvement but is very supportive.

Q: WHAT is the situation with shareholders of the former company? Some claim they have not been contacted by the old company or the administrator.

A: In terms of contact, an update was sent just before Christmas.

I was made redundant myself (on March 5th) so can't say if there has been any contact since.

Q: Obviously it is early days, but are there plans to hire (re-employ) staff in the foreseeable future?

A: It is reviewed daily. It looks promising and we hope to be recruiting very soon.

Q: WE understand that Axminster Carpets 2013 Ltd only has one registered director (Stephen Boyd). Is that correct?

A: No. I'm also a director and so are Gary Bridge (the old company's design director) and Simon Wright (a former operations director with the old company). There is a perception that it is the same management team, but about 60 per cent have changed.

It is a very different team.

◆ Axminster Carpets is launching a campaign to regenerate the brand and the business.

Anybody supportive of the campaign is asked to register by e-mailing: supportaxminster@axminstercarpets.co.uk

Those registering will be contacted by the company, which is in the process of deciding how to mobilise the campaign.

Roggie and Balti are top cats

by Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedia.co.uk

AN AXMOUTH woman has taken home a bundle of rosettes and certificates after her two prized cats came top in a local cat show.

Patricia Absalom has been celebrating after her two British Brown Spotted Shorthairs picked up a number of awards at the South West British Shorthair Cat Club and Kernow Cat Club championships.

BEAUTIFUL BALTI | Imperial Grand Champion Wellmar Balti picked up several premier certificates and a best of breed award

The event, which was held at the Matford Centre near Marsh Barton in Exeter, welcomed hundreds of moggies to compete for the best in show, but it was Mrs Absalom's cats that stole the show.

The first of her winning feline friends was Imperial Grand Premier Charway Rogan Josh, by far the biggest of her pets, who not only picked up the award for Best British Neuter in the Kernow Show but also won 'best in breed'.

Known by his owner as 'Roggie,' the cat also picked up a whole host of other certificates from the two show clubs and won in the Olympian class, the elite class of its kind in cat shows, receiving his first bronze certificate.

Similarly, Mrs Absalom's younger British Brown spotty, Imperial Grand Champion, Wellmar Balti also stood out at the show competing for the first time as a neuter.

Balti received premier certificates in both shows, picking up several first and second prizes and 'best of breed' in the British Shorthair Cat Club competition.

Mrs Absalom, who has five cats in total and has been breeding and competing in cat shows for more than 50 years, said: "As Roggie came out of retirement after four years, I was completely delighted that he did so well.

"I was thrilled to start little Balti off on her new show career as a neuter, particularly as she received such brilliant awards and collected some premier certificates.

"I moved to Axmouth last year from further up north where there were far more competitions to join in, but will be competing in as many South West shows as I can in the future as I really enjoyed the recent event."

New Beavers group

BEWARE! Beavers have been spotted in Beer at the scout hut on Clapps Lane.

The new colony has set up home and can be seeen found having great fun and games on a Monday evening.

For the past six years, there hasn't been a beaver colony in the village, but a group of ten youngsters have joined together and formed the last section of the Beer Scout group.

Nigel Groves, Group Scout Leader, said: "It's good we have at last managed to re-open the youngest section of scouting. We have had so many youngsters wanting to join but until now we have not had any leaders, so to be able to come along and invest ten beavers into the scout movement is fantastic.

"As the Beavers' motto is 'Fun and Friends' I am sure they will have a great time."

The Beavers group is open to boys and girls aged between five-and-three-quarters and eight-years-old.

If you would like more information about joining, contact Nigel Groves on 01297 21159 or pop in Beer Post Office and have a chat.

Celebrations as new pool is unveiled

COUNCILLORS and Seaton residents gathered for the unveiling of an £80,000 community swimming pool earlier this month.

At a special opening ceremony many involved in the project joined together to see the new facilities officially opened to the public, including Seaton Primary School staff and pupils, local supporters and EDDC councillors.

During the formal ceremony, EDDC chairman, Councillor Peter Halse, and chairman of governors, Devon County Councillor Jim Knight, cut the ribbon and unveiled a new sign and plaque thanking the community for their input.

During the past two years, the pool based on the grounds of Seaton Primary School has been given a complete makeover.

The old outside pool has been covered with a permanent structure, which can be opened up during good weather, whilst brand new changing rooms and showers have been introduced and a new access from Elizabeth Road playing fields has been created.

The project began when Seaton Primary School made a bid during 2010 for £50,000 of Section 106 funding from East Devon District Council, collected from developers for the improvement of sporting facilities in the parish.

Since 2008 EDDC has distributed Section 106 money for sport and play through a participatory budgeting process using extensive community involvement.

With an initial £75,000 available for the town, Seaton Town Council representatives collected ideas from the community on how the money should be spent. Seven initial proposals arose and residents were then asked to vote during a public consultation, with 84 per cent of the vote going to the swimming pool project. From the voting system, the school was granted £50,000 towards the revamp project.

Since, the school was also successful in a bid for a further £14,000 from a 'Making it Local' grant. Money from the school's own fundraising also helped the project alongside further funding from Devon County Councillor, Jim Knight, Leisure East Devon and the local Rotary Club.

Councillor Steph Jones, Member Champion for Seaton, said: "Thank you to everyone that voted for their favourite sports projects back in 2010.

"Your views really did make a difference and have resulted in the outdoor gym in Jubilee Gardens and £10,000 towards improvements to the Elizabeth Road play area, as well as this fantastic project.

"It is great news that thanks to the hard work of Seaton Primary School the people of Seaton will be able to enjoy this facility for years to come."

Head teacher at Seaton Primary School, Alan Simpson, was also pleased to see that the project is now complete.

He added: "Seaton Primary School is at the heart of the local community and it is good to see our facilities being available and used by that community. Working with our partners we have been able to make the swimming pool a fantastic asset for the school and for everyone in Seaton and the surrounding area."

The primary school will continue to use the pool during the school day to provide swimming instruction for all the children and will be open to the public at other times.

The pool will managed by Leisure East Devon with public sessions, events and activities starting this Easter and continuing through the summer and into early autumn.

A SWIMMING POOL FOR ALL | Andy Mackie from Leisure East Devon, Cllr Jim Knight, EDDC chairman Peter Halse and Seaton Primary School headteacher Alan Simpson cut the ribbon and officially open the swimming pool to the public

Colyton man filmed for new DVD on Dunkeswell Airfield

LIFELONG Colyton resident Jim Board has been re-living his experiences working at Dunkeswell Airfield during the Second World War for a new film on the history of the site.

Having been interviewed on camera at his home, Mr Board was recently invited to the Hemyock launch of a DVD, covering the foundation and history of Dunkeswell Airfield. He has now been invited back to the airfield to talk on his experiences working there, and has also given a talk for children at Broadhembury Primary School.

Mr Board first started work at the airfield in 1943 when he was just 14 and a half, having been sent there by the Ministry of Labour.

Along with his elder brother, he left Colyton at 7am each day and returned at 7pm, working in maintainance.

Mr Board said he saw the comings and goings of the American airforce and was there on D-Day in 1944.

He said: "It was quite a thing to witness. For a young lad it was quite an exciting thing to do."

He stayed at the airfield until 1946 when he joined the Army, serving for two years and visiting Egypt, Kenya, Jordan and Israel.

Now 84, Mr Board said it was "something like a pilgrimage" going back to the airfield after all these years to re-live his experiences.

Speaking of the DVD launch event, he said: "It was a very enjoyable evening. It summed up my time and my work there."

Although only 14 when starting work at the airfield, Mr Board has earlier memories of the war.

At age 12, and having never left Colyton before, he was hit in the eye by a playing dart one evening at Colyton Social Club. He ran to the doctor's house and was told he would have to go to the eye infirmary in Exeter the next day.

■ REMEMBERING THE WAR: Jim Board in Colyton features in a new film about Dunkeswell Airfield

Mr Board caught the train from Seaton Junction and found his way to the eye infirmary alone, having to ask for directions from passers-by.

On the second day of his month-long stay at the hospital he witnessed the bombing of Exeter city centre from the window and, a few days later, was able to see the devastation up close having been allowed out with another young patient for the day.

This story will be one of many to be published in Mr Board's biography, which he is currently working on.

Paying for cycle path ourselves is crazy, says Colyford resident

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedia.co.uk

A COLYFORD resident has spoken out about funding an off-road route for the Stop Line Way cycle route, saying it is "crazy" that the village will have to raise the money itself.

The Burgesses of Colyford have spent months working on an off-road route for the cycle path, which when complete will run from Weston-super-Mare in Somerset to Seaton, rather than the original on-road route proposed by Devon County Council.

The county planned for the cycle route to arrive in Colyford via the Axe Valley Wetlands, joining Colyford Road and then the A3052, where a toucan crossing would be constructed. Cyclists would then head down the main road and cross the bridge and tram crossing before heading out towards Axminster.

Village residents strongly opposed the plans at a number of public meetings held last year, saying the route was dangerous, particularly the pinch point on the bridge, and they did not want a toucan crossing near the Post Office, but further up the road between Colyford Memorial Hall and the church.

It was eventually agreed to hold off on the plans for six months while the Burgesses worked on an off-road alternative, which would cost a total of £400,000. However, the county has no funds to put in place the new route, which would instead continue through the wetlands and meet the tramline, other than the money it will save by not making the planned alterations to the A3052. The Burgesses are now looking to fund the remaining £350,000 themselves.

Speaking at last week's parish council meeting, Colyford resident Mrs Morgan asked what would happen if the village was unable to fund this themselves.

"Will the previous, very dangerous route come back?" she added.

Mayor of Colyford and parish councillor, Howard West, said: "It's going to be a long, rather difficult job but there's nothing else we can do."

Councillor West said: "I totally agree. I'm leading the fight for the alternative route and it's very frustrating."

County councillor Sara Randall-Johnson, who is now running for re-election, said she was not able to comment on funding in the run-up to an election.

She added: "The good news is you are doing an extremely good job in working for the off-road route."

New parish councillor Robin Pocock, who last week following his election said his main concern for the parish was traffic problems in Colyford, said: "The crunch will come when an accident occurs and there's bound to be one sooner or later.

"We are going to have to press for a 20mph limit in the village. There is no difference between Colyford and Sidford and the road in Sidford has also been widened in places.

"We have two places in Colyford where you cannot pass if you see a lorry coming."

Trefoil Guild event

SEATON Trefoil Guild is holding a coffee morning and table-top sale on Saturday, April 20th from 9.30am to 11.30am in Colyton Town Hall.

Funds will be donated to the branch's chosen charity for 2013, the Devon Freewheelers .

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

RAY Hunter from Axminster Christian Fellowship writes: When Jesus was challenged with this question, "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?", he replied, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbour as yourself." (Matt 22: 36-39)

There certainly seems to be a lot of the second commandment happening in the Axminster area in recent weeks in response to the many who lost their jobs at Axminster Carpets. It has been so good to see all the town's agencies and organisations, both paid and voluntary, coming together to offer their help and support.

Axminster Churches Together have played their part in what has been a great team effort through the Job Club and Food Hamper Project. Chatting with the town's mayor, Andrew Moulding, at a recent meeting, he commented that it was no surprise to him the response from the town, as this is the way it has always been. Well done!

The Church of England has given support for wedding-style services for couples in civil partnerships, while remaining opposed to same-sex marriages. This does not mean a change of policy but an attempt to give compassionate help.

Work continues on the Anglican deadlock over women-bishops; proposals are due in July.

Devon County Emergency Planning Service has recently held refresher training sessions for ministers of all faiths who could respond to emergencies such as flooding or major accidents. More help is needed, enquire at 01805 804264.

The retirement has been announced for health reasons of Prebendary David Moss, the Principal of the South West Ministry Training Course, known to many local ministers who trained under him.

There will be a West Country connection at Margaret Thatcher's funeral service at St Paul's Cathedral when the welcome will be performed by the Dean of St Paul's, the Very Rev Dr David Ison, previously on the staff of Exeter Cathedral.

Back at Exeter, the Farewell Service for the retiring Diocesan Bishop, Michael Langrish, is on Saturday, June 29th at 11am - seating will be first come, first served.

News of a change in the Income Tax system in which churches have to notify HMRC whenever they make a payment to organists, cleaners, or other staff. So far such details have only been required once a year.

In the new tax year employers are required to give details to HMRC when they make regular payments to staff. The changes are intended to make the tax system more accurate and reduce administration. Churches are not excluded and registered employers have been informed.

Our church companions in Cyprus report that they are assisting families hit by the money crisis there.

60 seconds

LETITIA Mace, from Kilmington, has started up a website, Xclusively Jaguar, focusing on all things about the brand and is already making her mark on the world of Jaguar cars, although the industry is still dominated by men.

Having had a fascination with cars since childhood, Letitia founded the company in 2008 and has owned 16 assorted Jaguar cars to date and driven more than 50.

WHAT is Xclusively Jaguar?

Xclusively Jaguar is an online resource which provides free advice and information on all Jaguar cars and its marque, currently acting as a point of contact for groups, such as the Jaguar Enthusiasts' Club, classic parts, SNG Barratt and various other Jaguar organisations.

WHAT are your links to the Jaguar Enthusiasts' Club?

I joined the Jaguar Enthusiasts' Club in May 2004. However, due to my husband's unstable health my membership was limited to reading the magazine and contributing the occasional article, along with cleaning and learning about my XJ40, rather than being able to participate in any Jaguar related events.

After various involvements over the years, in September 2012 I was invited to join the Jaguar Enthusiasts' Club Events Committee and this appointment became official at the annual meeting at The Jaguar Visitor Centre, Castle Bromwich. My husband accompanied me to the meeting. It was to be his last outing, and in typically defiant style, he wore his Mercedes Benz Club rugby shirt!

I was concerned about my husband's long-standing health issues and how we would cope with my expected commitment to the JEC, but his rapidly deteriorating health after the annual meeting, and his passing away on Christmas Day, almost seemed like a greater power was working to a predetermined plan. He had, in effect, given me my freedom and his blessing for Christmas, and it is a gift I will not waste, as I had already promised to work hard for Jaguar and the JEC for as long as I am able.

WHAT do you enjoy most about running Xclusively Jaguar?

It is the pleasure of helping those who share an interest, which I enjoy. I would have been just as content to assist fellow enthusiasts with actually cleaning and repairing the Jaguars, had I the premises and means to do so, but in reality, distance, as much as anything, dictates that I can do much more by way of advising and supporting over the internet.

Where some enthusiasts are content to polish and file facts on their own Jaguar, I find this fruitless and soon become bored if there is nothing else to supplement it. I need social interaction and a reason to increase my knowledge, improve my skills, and pass these on.

WHAT is Xclusively Jaguar News?

Xclusively Jaguar News aims to highlight the diverse range of Jaguar related activities across the globe, past and present, and to provide an extra dimension for current Jaguar Enthusiasts' Club members and an insight into club activities and benefits for non-members.

IS Xclusively Jaguar doing well online?

It already has a mailing list of over 2,500 regular newsletter recipients and page views were well on the way to 350,000 before the old site was revamped in August 2012. Visits have recently been recorded at 456 per day and we anticipate steady growth from the beginning of 2013 onwards. We are regularly on the first page of a Google search for Jaguar related topics.

WHAT do you hope for the future?

I continually build relations with reputable companies and individuals who will help me to build a good reputation – people who are associated with Jaguars, who share the dream, and who actively transmit their passion to others in a positive way. I am continually developing my website and online magazine and currently have a number of ideas behind the scene. There is also now a blog and news update section.

I hope that Xclusively Jaguar can continue to grow in the future and I am looking forward to the exciting journey ahead.

Probus club members learn of cinema organs

RALPH Waggett entertained members of Seaton and District Men's Probus Club with an illustrated talk about the rise and fall of the cinema organ at its recent meeting.

Ralph is one of the club's older members and, as a child, witnessed the heyday of the cinema organ in the 1920s and 30s.

He recalled his excitement as the illuminated organ console was raised in his local cinema in Sunderland.

These organs were originally intended to accompany silent films, but most were installed in the early days of "talkies" and were used for musical interludes and to accompany live acts.

Members learnt how the Wurlitzer organ was adapted for the cinema by Robert Hope-Jones. This gave a much more lively sound than the more sober church organ with a myriad of sounds, including drums and hooters.

By the mid-1940s and 50s, cinemas were struggling and were unable to afford the cost of organs and organists, and most were removed. The one at the Odeon, in London's Leicester Square, was an exception and is still there today.

The Musical Museum at Brentford has a magnificent Wurlitzer in its collection.

Seaton and District Men's Probus club is open to retired or semi-retired men.

A lively social calendar supplements the fortnightly meetings which take place over the winter and informal meetings throughout the year.

Contact Keith West on 01297 624374 for more information.

Retired surgeon to talk on herbal remedies

MUSBURY Garden Club will welcome Gavin Haig, a semi-retired surgeon at Tiverton Hospital, on Monday, April 22nd for a light-hearted talk reflecting his interest in herbal remedies.

His previous garden, Spillifords, featured on many natural history and wildlife programmes on television.

Dr Haig turned this four-acre garden bounded by the River Exe at Tiverton from desolation into a tranquil retreat for both humans and wildlife.

He has a special interest in attracting a wide variety of birds and in cultivating plants attractive to numerous insects and butterflies.

The venue for the talk is Musbury Village Hall and all are welcome. Entry is £2.50 for non-members and £1.50 for members.

Mixed media fun at art club

INTERNATIONALLY acclaimed artist, Melanie Cambridge, brought a real sense of the fun of mixed media painting to a delighted audience at the April meeting of Honiton Art Society.

Working fast and loose, "on the edge" as she described it, Melanie laid down her base layer of colour for a scene of rocks and surf, which she had lightly sketched in charcoal beforehand.

She used acrylic paint for the rocks and the more transparent acrylic inks for the water. Moving on to texture for the rocks, a mixture of PVA glue and water was brushed over them; pieces of soft paper were then pressed on, followed by another coat of the glue mix. This was left to dry before further coats of paint were applied.

Texture paste was used to add highlights to clouds, rock surfaces and breaking waves.

With her humour and enthusiasm, Melanie kept her audience involved throughout a lively demonstration. Finishing, she encouraged members to give it a go using whatever materials they had to hand. She suggested E.J. Robinson was a good artist to study for seascapes.

Melanie Cambridge offers a range of painting classes, holidays and workshops, and also takes commissions.

This was the last of Honiton Art Society's monthly meetings until the autumn but members shall be welcoming visitors to their annual exhibition in September.

Meanwhile there are summer sketching days to which everyone is welcome. Details from Paul Redvers on 01404 43689.

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

HONITON AFTERNOON

THE guest speaker at the Honiton Afternoon WI April Meeting was Simon Carr, who gave an illustrated talk on the Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

He explained that the trust is a registered charity which raises funds to keep the two helicopters flying. Each year it costs in the regioon of £4.5 million to keep the service airborne with every penny coming from donations, legacies and fundraising by the community. There is no government or National Lottery funding.

The helicopters are crewed by a pilot and two paramedics, one of whom is also the navigator. They undertake many lifesaving missions such as road traffic accidents and equestrian/sport related injuries.

Because Devon is such a large county, with many remote and hard to reach places, such as Dartmoor, an air ambulance is essential as it flies in a straight line and does not get held up in traffic situations.

Mr Carr drew members' attention to the fact that there is a DAAT Lottery which is a great way to support this charity with very generous weekly prizes.

Members were most impressed by the stories of complicated rescues and very successful outcomes.

The next meeting is on May 13th at 2pm, in the Methodist Chapel, when the annual general meeting will be held followed by a social occasion.

THORNCOMBE

THORNCOMBE WI members were treated to an evening of reminiscence when Bruce Upton visited to give members "A Glimpse of Old Bridport".

During a presentation of artefacts and photographs from the Bridport Museum, members were transported back to the years between the 1880s and the 1970s.

The group were shown Victorian photos of memorable events, including The Golden Jubilee, Chideock after the 1893 fire, celebrations at the end of the Boer War, a wonderful couple enjoying a ride on their sociable bike (very uncomfortable with no brakes), and heavy snow on East Street – far more snow than seen recently.

Many photos taken after 1900, when cameras became more accessible, remain. There were pictures of elephants walking down West Street to advertise the circus coming to town (the elephants were walked down to West Bay for a cooling swim), horse-drawn floats at the 1912 Bridport Carnival, cars in the street following the tarmacing of the road, including Bridport's very own "Brit" car, a very formal Edwardian family group on West Bay beach, and a wonderful picture of Princess Margaret at the Town Hall on the occasion of the 700th Anniversary of Bridport's Market Charter.

Members also saw an interesting WWI photo of the requisitioning of horses, WW2 photos of the local Home Guard, GIs and Canadian soldiers, and fascinating pictures of the troops practising on the beach between West Bay and Eype for the Dieppe Raid, which preceded D-Day.

Sport also featured in the presentation, with pictures of maypole dancing, roller skating at Walditch Rink, cycle racing and water polo in West Bay.

The reminiscence box of artefacts of the 1950s and 60s contained such items as a baby's feeding bottle, heated hair rollers, knitting patterns, curling tongs and a gruesome bathing cap in the style of a curly wig. Many members could remember using these.

Mr Upton encouraged visitors to the Bridport Museum, and asked anyone with old photographs to donate to ensure that they were described and dated on the reverse.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, May 14th at 7.30pm at Thorncombe Village Hall when Catherine and Mark Jones will be give a presentation on the subject of "Dinner Party Desserts". Bring along your oldest recipe book for the competition.

New Members and visitors welcome.

OFFWELL

THE members of Offwell WI ventured out on a very cold evening to enjoy their monthly meeting in the social club, where the vice-president Eileen Rooke welcomed everyone.

She presented birthday posies to Gill, Gini and Melanie, and also received one herself.

Forthcoming events include the spring group meeting at Broadhembury, the spring council meeting in Torquay, the 60th anniversary of Offwell WI in July, a visit to Crediton Flower Festival, the group outing to Weymouth and the summer skittles.

The speaker was Jayne Palmer, a herbalist who gave a very interesting talk about plants and flowers from gardens and hedgerows which could be used to ease minor ailments, stress and insomnia. So many natural remedies were used years ago and now seem to be accepted by the medical profession alongside prescribed pills and ointments.

She was thanked by Gini and refreshments prepared by Joan and Pat were then enjoyed to complete the meeting.

The annual general meeting with wine and cheese will be on May 2nd at 7.30pm when new members will be most welcome.

MUSBURY & WHITFORD

MUSBURY & Whitford WI held its April meeting in Whitford Village Hall.

The guest speaker was Susan Matthew, who gave members an insight into being a U.N. Peacemonger, having been one herself for 30 years.

Members agreed this was a very interesting subject, especially as Susan is white and female, not something that always went down well in some African countries, where men are dominant.

The vote of thanks was given by Marnie.

Volunteers are needed for the committee, the annual meeting being next month.

Save Axminster hospital by making sure there is demand for its services

■ I WOULD like to urge everyone to support Axminster Hospital by always insisting on being treated there.

Recently I had to phone and book for a minor medical procedure. I was told it would be at Exeter. I insisted that I wanted to have it in Axminster, but I was told that a check would have to be made to find out whether it could be done there and I would be called back within three days.

A week later I received a letter asking why I had not made an appointment. I called again and explained what had happened. This time I was told that I could have an appointment in Axminster, but it might have to be cancelled if it could not be done there.

I have had my letter confirming the appointment, so I am hoping it will take place.

So please, everyone who needs a hospital appointment, please do ask and ask again to have it at Axminster.

The phone and book service is not offering us a service - it is trying to dictate what we have. Why should we all drive to Exeter or, more often, have someone else drive us to Exeter, try to find parking and walk miles to the right department?

Let's make sure there is a huge demand for our local hospital.

JOAN FREELAND,
Market Place, Colyton

Direct bus service to hospital is needed

■ THERE is a need for a direct bus service to the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital.

A regular, direct service to the RD&E and Exeter from Axminster and/or Honiton via the A30 would speed up the journey time, reducing traffic pollution and congestion.

Travelling to the hospital by car is very difficult due to lack of parking spaces there. Travelling by train or, currently, bus involves changes of transport, and travelling by taxi (or even TRIP) can be expensive.

Exmouth, Dawlish, Torbay, Teignmouth, Plymouth, Crediton and Seaton already have bus services which stop in Barrck Road directly outside the RD&E.

Axminster doctor takes on 125 mile canoe challenge for fifth time

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

AXMINSTER-based GP Dr Barry McKenna and paddling partner Gary Wakely have completed their fifth Devizes to Westminster International Canoe Marathon.

Apart from tackling the physical challenge, Dr McKenna takes part to raise money for local charity ARC. The race has been held annually during Easter weekend since 1948, and has 77 portages (where vessels are carried around an obstacle in water or overland between waterways) along its 125 mile course.

ARC is based at Axminster Medical Practice and provides psychological therapies and support for people affected by profound and difficult changes to their lives. This covers a wide spectrum of scenarios, from bereavement to serious illness.

The charity was set up by founding trustee and psychological lead Catherine Davies, and it is chaired by Dr McKenna.

Dr McKenna and Mr Wakely crossed the finishing line at Westminster Bridge after 23 hours and four minutes - their second fastest time.

Dr McKenna said: "Each year and race presents us with different difficulties. This year we had to deal with punitively cold conditions, scraping a couple of degrees in the day and minus six celsius at night.

"Gradually, our boat got covered under a sheet of ice that weighed us down and made hard work of the paddling. Icicles formed in competitors' hair and beards. Capsizing in such conditions can be particularly energy and morale-sapping."

The pair have their eye on the ultimate goal, the 1,000-mile mark to earn the recognition afforded to those who have done the race eight times.

ARC's Catherine Davies was impressed, not only by the two paddlers, but also by their support crew consisting of family members.

She said: "I was thrilled this year to meet with Dr McKenna's support crew. A huge amount of preparation goes into the race: precise mapping and navigating to meet the paddling team at the portages, food, drinks, dry clothing, etc.

■ ICY WATERS: Dr McKenna (front) and paddling partner Gary Wakely negotiate the Thames

"The support crew ensures that all the logistics are covered and, quite exceptionally, they have been doing so for five consecutive years. I was impressed by their confidence and efficiency.

"They play an essential role in keeping the morale high, especially as exhaustion sets in. This year, they were particularly wary of hypothermia."

Dr McKenna added: "This achievement is a team effort and simply wouldn't be possible without all the support I get from our community.

"I enjoy reading the messages of well wishers and sharing paddling stories with other enthusiasts. There is something about paddling towards Westminster Bridge after over 23 hours of continuous exertion that feels totally magical.

"No one who has ever taken part in that race can ever forget about it."

He estimates that fundraising stands at about £2,000, and praised everyone who has contributed. You can still sponsor Dr McKenna online at www.arcaxminster.org or by leaving your donation in an envelope at the surgery (cheques to ARC Axminster).

Playpark reopens after refit

by Laura Goldsbury Noy

ELIZABETH Road Playpark in Seaton was given a new lease of life when it was filled with local children and parents for its official re-opening.

The £42,000 investment in the popular play park was deemed a great success on when hundreds arrived to celebrate the new equipment and join in the official unveiling, alongside councillors and dignitaries.

Seaton Town Crier, David Craner, began the proceedings with a celebratory cry, before Seaton's Mayor, Councillor Peter Burrows, made a short speech and cut the ribbon, declaring the playpark open.

Councillor Burrows said: "I am so pleased to welcome you all here today to celebrate the great new apparatus and equipment here at Elizabeth Road playpark.

"We are pleased that Seaton Town Council could take ownership of the park and work closely with EDDC to deliver something for our local young people to enjoy.

"I would like to thank everybody for coming today and I would like to send special thanks to those who have been involved in this project, particularly Seaton town councillors Dawn Squire, Gaynor Sedgwick and Heather Sanham."

Councillor Burrows was joined by a number of Seaton town councillors, representatives from the local community and Graham Godbeer, EDDC portfolio holder for the economy and chairman of Seaton's regeneration board.

Chairman of EDDC, Councillor Peter Halse, also joined in the celebrations and said: "It is a great pleasure to be here today and see so many of you enjoying the new play equipment.

"At EDDC we always try out best to work with various councils-including Seaton Town Council and Devon County Council.

"This is your playing field and your town and it's a joy to share this moment with you."

Alongside the new additions to the playpark, visitors to the grand opening also enjoyed circus skills and a bouncy castle on the bottom playing field and free face painting and balloons.

The new play equipment, which was chosen by Seaton residents following a series of consultation events, includes a new Olympic basket swing, climbing walls and frames, spinning swings, a 'rota roka' and a range of other features for the youth of the town to enjoy.

The project is the result of a close working relationship between Seaton Town Council and East Devon District Council, who wrote a design brief for the play area following visits to Seaton Primary School and youth organisations in the town, as well as a number of other organisations.

During the consultations, councillors found that climbing, spinning and swinging where at the top of the list chosen by local people, and once shortlisted, the winning design was chosen with 52 per cent of the vote.

The funding for the park refurbishment has come from Section 106 funding, from developments in the town.

Spearheading the project were members of Seaton Town Council's Youth and Recreation Committee who were particularly pleased with the day's success.

Councillor Dawn Squire said: "On behalf of the Youth and Recreation Committee I would like to thank everyone who has contributed towards making this project a success.

"It has been so nice to see the children who chose the equipment enjoying the park."

Navy Commander speaks at hotel lunch

ALMOST 50 people attended a lunch at Fairwater Head Hotel in Hawkchurch to hear a local man, Commander Evans, talk about his experiences while serving with the Royal Navy between 1937 and 1960.

This included his time on HMS Hood, the last battle cruiser built for the Royal Navy and tragically sunk in 1941 by the German battleship Bismarck.

This loss had a profound effect on British people, which was followed by a famous Sir Winston Churchill speech when he ordered the Royal Navy to "sink the Bismarck".

Fairwater Head Hotel owner Adam Southwell said: "It was very moving. You could see that those attending felt much moved by his words."

Garden equipment stolen

HEDGE cutters and a chainsaw were taken when an outbuilding was burgled in Wilmington.

The location was given as "in the centre of the village" and the burglary took place at some point from Friday, March 29th to Monday, April 8th.

Anyone with information that may assist police is asked to call the force switchboard on 101 and ask for Axminster Police Station.

The crime reference is KA/13/185.

Chimney fire at Post Office

A CHIMNEY fire broke out at Feniton Post Office in the evening of Thursday, April 11th.

One fire engine from Ottery St Mary was despatched just after 8.10pm.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Crews extinguished the fire using chimney gear."

Folly Pre-School joins the Big Toddle

■ CHILDREN from The Folly Pre-School and Nursery "toddled" for two miles around Dalwood village to raise money for Barnardo's as part of the charity's nationwide "Big Toddle" campaign. The children and their families collected a total of £127.50 in sponsorship for Barnado's and enjoyed visiting their friends, including Bumble the horse (pictured above) as they walked through the country lanes. As well as raising funds the children also learnt about other children less fortunate than themselves and enjoyed thinking of ways in which they may be able to help them.

Vintage tractor damaged in fire

A VINTAGE tractor has been badly damaged by fire.

Firefighters were despatched to a barn in Downash Lane, Hawkchurch, at about 3.20am on Tuesday, April 9th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Fire control received a call reporting a barn on fire in Hawkchurch and mobilised an appliance from Axminster.

"Dorset Fire Control was contacted for their Charmouth and Lyme Regis appliances and also their water carrier from Bridport.

"On arrival, the crews reported that a tractor was on fire inside an open-ended single storey building. The barn itself was not involved and the vehicle was being removed to open air.

"The Lyme Regis appliance and the water carrier were not required.

"The vintage tractor was severely damaged by the fire, which was extinguished using two hose reel jets."

Crews called to trapped walkers

SIDMOUTH Independent Lifeboat and Beer Coastguards were despatched to rocks between Branscombe and Beer after walkers had been cut off by the tide.

A 999 call was received from a party of five walkers – four adults and one child – in the early afternoon of Tuesday, April 9th.

They requested assistance as they were cut off by the tide on a walk from Branscombe to Beer, having left the beach and ended up on rocks near the incoming tide.

A Coastguard spokesperson said: "Sidmouth Independant Lifeboat and Beer Coastguard rescue officers were tasked.

"As units were proceeding, a further call was received from the group – who had managed to get themselves back onto the beach and reverse their walk back to Branscombe."

We have the benefit of having our own designated outdoor area allowing great diversity for the children to explore all aspects of learning.

We aim to keep the sessions at no more than 12 children therefore ensuring they each receive the attention and commitment they deserve in their first experience of school life from our highly qualified and enthusiastic staff.

Our days are filled with engaging activities, walks around Shute Barton, regular trips to the Donkey Sanctuary and lots and lots of fun.

ALL SAINTS WISE OWLS

WHEN you decide to place your child into a Pre-School or Nursery you are, of course, making a very important decision concerning your child's future and well being. These experiences include messy play, creative activities, construction, small world fun, role-playing, outside play and exploring the wider world. We use the Early Years Foundation Stage curriculum to plan lots of appropriate activities to ensure your child reaches their full potential in all of the following areas; Personal,Social and Emotional Development, Communication and Language, Physical Development, Literacy, Mathematics, Understanding the World and Expressive Arts and Design.

Band reforms for hospice charity event

AXMINSTER electrician Les Bounds is sponsoring a charity evening at Lyme Regis Golf Club to raise funds for the Exeter and South West Hospice.

The event will be held this coming Saturday (April 20th), starting at 8 pm, with free admission.

A popular local band in the 1990s, Chained Reaction, featuring Barry Ebdon, Graham Barton, Mike Mudford, Chris Bailey and Graham Denty, have reformed especially for the occasion after rehearsing hard over the last few weeks at Cloakham Lawns sports centre.

A number of donated items, including free rounds of golf at a number of South West golf courses and a signed Exeter Chiefs shirt, will be auctioned off by Mr Barton, a popular TV auctioneer.

The idea for the event came about when Les Bounds and Barry Ebdon were playing golf. Mr Bounds said he would like to organise a fundraiser for the hospice because they had been so kind to his wife Sue, who died of cancer last year. Mr Ebdon said he would reform the band especially for the occasion.

Said Mr Bounds: "The hospice was brilliant in helping Sue and I hope we can raise a significant amount for such a worthy cause. Everyone is welcome."

English Touring Theatre and Liverpool Everyman and Playhouse present

The Misanthrope

FOLLOWING the huge successes of their collaboration on Tartuffe and The Hypochondriac, English Touring Theatre and Liverpool Playhouse complete a trilogy of Roger McGough adaptations of classic Molière comedies with The Misanthrope, which comes to the Exeter Northcott Theatre on Tuesday, April 23rd. The 'McGoughière' team will reunite McGough with Everyman and Playhouse Artistic Director Gemma Bodinetz, who will direct this co-production with ETT.

Master wordsmith Roger McGough dips his quill into what many consider to be Molière's best work in this mockery of manners and morals set amid 17th century French aristocracy. Poet Alceste is disgusted with French society. Powdered fops gossip in code and be-jewelled coquettes whisper behind fans wherever he looks. In pursuit of honesty, he embarks on a one-man crusade against forked-tongues, frippery and fakery. But could the woman he has fallen in love with be the worst culprit of all? As Alceste dreams of a pas de deux, are the only deux of Célimène her faces? And in this rarefied world will his revolution prove just revolting?

Standard tickets cost from £12.50 to £20.50, Saturday matinee £12.50. The show is appropriate for ages 14+. To book visit www.exeternorthcott.co.uk or call 01392 493 493

Swashbuckling fun at Pecorama

Local re-enactment group help celebrate Peco Pirates Day

A DAY of swashbuckling fun and history filled Pecorama in Beer as visitors gathered for the annual Peco Pirate Day.

Focusing on the celebration of local legends in Devon, the annual event was given an extra twist when members of re-enactment group, the Society of King George III arrived to tell the stories of famous smuggler Jack Rattenbury and Devonshire hero, Sir Edward Pellew.

Arriving in full costume, featuring 18th century military uniform from the Royal Navy and\British Marines, the group brought an added element of history to the day as they performed a number of drill displays and historical talks.

With the smell of gunpowder and black smoke drifting through the sites of Pecorama, the sound of flintlock muskets could be heard echoing out, as the historians showed off their 18th century military skills.

Informative talks on Jack Rattenbury and Sir Edward Pellew, as well as the times of the 18th century battles were led by Group Historian, Michael Butterfield of the Devon based group who brought the local history alive in front of crowds of visitors at the attraction's main marquee and lawn.

A hands on living history display also captured the attention of visitors featuring a military encampment, Georgian furniture, officer's tableware and weapons from the time.

Mr Butterfield said: "It has been great for members of the Society of King George the third to support Pecorama during Peco Pirate Day to celebrate the life and time of famous Beer smuggler Jack Rattenbury and local hero, Sir Edward Pellew.

"As a local group we are proud to support an event at Pecorama and it has been lovely for visitors to see the flintlock muskets in action and to find out about the elegance of the 18th century."

Younger visitors to Pecorama were also invited to actively join in the day, with many arriving in pirate fancy dress, where they were able to pick up a free sweet treat for their efforts.

Tourism Manager, Mark Ridgers added: "This has been another successful and exciting event in the series of Pecorama's programme for the season.

"We have been very privileged to welcome members of the Society of King George III who have brought with them a wealth of knowledge and exciting displays for visitors to enjoy, and a celebration of our local legends.

"It has been a great end to our events for the Easter holidays for children to enjoy before they go back to school."

RE-ENACTMENT | Members of Devon based re-enactment group, the Society of King George III, took part in a number of displays during Pecorama's Pirate Day including in-depth talks, military drills and musket firing.

Murray Lachlan Young's The Incomers heads to the Marine Theatre

A FULL moon rises over a windswept cottage in the middle of nowhere Children are in bed... wine is breathing nicely and the dinner is in the oven.

It's Gordon and Celia's wedding anniversary. They've asked their oldest and dearest friends Zach and Jane down from London. The only problem is that Zach and Jane aren't Zach and Jane anymore. Jane has gone and Julia – the twenty five year old, French burlesque dancer, has taken her place.

What starts as a simple celebration quickly unravels with one revelation after another until we become aware that no one has been telling the truth to anyone about anything for a very long time.

Written entirely in his characteristic verse by BBC 6 Music poet in residence Murray Lachlan Young, The Incomers will have you gasping and roaring with laughter in equal measure.

A hideously funny black farce in which four friends are slowly stripped of their pretensions and secrets until nothing is left but the truth...

Written by Murray Lachlan Young and directed by Paul Jepson, The Incomers will be at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Sunday, April 28th from 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £10 (£8.50 concessions) and are available from Lyme Regis TIC (01297 442138) or online at www.marinetheatre.com. A TheatreFriends discount is available.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

AXE SKIP HIRE LTD

Axe Skip Hire Ltd have been shortlisted in the National Recycling Awards under 'Materials Recycler of The Year (SME)'.

The team at Axe Skip Hire have been working really hard over the last 12 months to maximise the amount of recycling to decrease the amount of waste going to landfill which is why they have been nominated for the award.

They now recycle 88% of the waste that arrives at the licensced waste management depot at Gammons Hill. On arrival, all materials are hand sorted by the team and items are separated for recycling or landfill. They work in liaison with the local authorities in an effort to minimise the landfill sites and recycle all useful materials including hardcore, wood, soil, garden waste, metal, cardboard, UPVC. Some of the materials recycled are available for collection should you wish, if need Hardcore, Wood, or Soil you can collect it from the depot, however, please ring before hand so they can arrange a time for your visit, the site is a working waste management plant and they do operate heavy machinery which can be dangerous.

Axe Skip Hire history

Axe Skip Hire was started in 1985 by John Bostock and his wife Jane. They started with just one lorry and 20 skips and over the years John and Jane built up the family business and were joined by their son James in 1997. Today the successful business located in Kilmington, employs eight staff with four Lorries and operates as a Waste Transfer Station.

Sadly in 2009 John, who was well known locally, lost his 2 year battle against cancer. The business was then passed on to John's son James, who runs the business with the help of his wife Karen.

In the last few months of his life John and the family received tremendous support from the Hospiscare team and this has inspired the family to raise awareness and much needed funds for the Charity. The family have been fundraising for Hospiscare since 2009 under the banner of "4 one night only" where over £15,000 has been raised for the Axminster Friends of Hospiscare.

John took great pride in both his work and staff and would be proud to see how the current team of Pepe, Martin, Neil, Colin, Wallace, Chris, Ben and Marcell have helped and supported James, Jane and Karen Bostock run this family business.

Simplified Ford Mondeo range introduces new series and lower CO_2

FORD has announced upgraded versions of its acclaimed Mondeo executive car range, including new series specified for both private and business customers.

The new Ford Mondeo Graphite offers retail buyers a compelling combination of exterior appeal and excellent interior features with prices from £15,995.

Following the success of the Ford Mondeo Zetec Business Edition, the new Titanium X Business Edition offers even higher standards of technology and interior luxury, which have helped to secure residual values five percentage points higher than the outgoing Mondeo Titanium X, despite prices being £1,500 lower on the new model.

Ford Mondeo models equipped with the reputed 2.0-litre Duratorq TDCi diesel engine – available across all series (except Titanium X Sport) – offer CO2 emissions from just 119g/km across both 140PS and 163PS power outputs – a reduction of up to 10g/km – with the 163PS version offering more power than Mondeo's comparable rivals. Fuel consumption is improved from 57.6mpg to 61.4mpg.

"This upgrade offers Ford Mondeo customers more features, at a more competitive price, as well as outstanding fuel economy," said Mark Ovenden, Ford Britain managing director. "This winning formula has always played a key role in Mondeo's success and these significant range enhancements will grow its popularity among UK families."

Ford refined the calibration of the Mondeo's 2.0-litre Duratorq diesel engine and optimised aerodynamics to achieve 119g/km targeted CO2 emissions from the five-door version and 120g/km from the estate*. These lower CO2 levels qualify for annual road tax (VED) of £30, down from £105.

"Our engineers worked hard to deliver a leading combination of power and low CO2 emissions that offers customers great real-world fuel efficiency – and Mondeo's famous driving quality," said Barb Samardzich, Ford Europe Product Development vice president.

Throughout the Mondeo's 20-year history it has attracted recognition for its leading green technologies and credentials as a business and family car. Most recently this has included:

- What Car? Awards: best family and estate car in 2013, 2012 and 2011
- What Car? Green Awards: best family car in 2012 and 2011
- Carbuyer.co.uk: best large family car 2012

The Ford Mondeo also provides customers with a wide array of sophisticated features including Adaptive Cruise Control, Forward Alert, Blind Spot Information System, Lane Departure Warning, Adaptive Front Lighting System, Hill Launch Assist and Auto High Beam technology.

Rise become county champions in style

ROUND-UP

The eagles of ELMORE are the first team in the League to clinch promotion after their dazzling 6-1 victory at Division Two rivals DAWLISH UNITED. Elmore were even a goal down but after levelling by half-time went on the rampage to make sure of a return to Division One at the first attempt. Jordan Copp 3, Callum Old, Kevin Mills and Matty Atkins scored for Elmore whose Jordan Hewitt was outstanding.

Meanwhile down in Division Seven NORTH TAWTON finally got out of a minus points situation with a nail-biting 5-4 win at basement rivals PRIORY. The Tawts have endured 16 defeats in succession and may fold up at the end of the season, but they had something to cheer them up with Keith Steward, Simon Glanville, Matt Wagner and Dave Ware getting their goals but at 5-2 ahead they nearly let it get away as Priory fought back.

Premier leaders Feniton and third place St Martins had the day off as their matches at Exmouth and Topsham were rained off, but second place HATHERLEIGH TOWN missed out and had to settle for a 1-1 draw at SEATON TOWN after being denied a last minute winner for offside.

Hatherleigh scored both goals their first from Luke Reynolds and an own goal by Matt Wonnacott. They also hit the post and had a penalty denied so were left feeling the gods were against them.

HEAVITREE SOCIAL UNITED consolidated fourth place with a 1-0 win at CLYST VALLEY, third team Lee Watkins scoring their only goal, and they stay ahead of MORCHARD BISHOP who were 3-2 winners at WILLAND ROVERS.

THORVERTON drew 3-3 with NEWTOWN which was another good point as they bid for safety.

BOW AAC are within touching distance of Division One leaders Chard after a closely fought 2-1 victory at struggling COLYTON. Mike Broume and Gavin Coles were Bows scorers.

Tiverton Town are due to play their league match today against Chard, so SIDBURY UNITED hopped over the mid Devon title favourites with a long overdue 1-0 win at WITHERIDGE. Ash Small was the Sidbury scorer.

HEAVITREE RESERVES won a thriller against unlucky CULLOMPTON RESERVES 4-3, Dickie Phillips, Stacey Thorpe and Luke Nichols 2 scoring, and Cullys plight becomes ever worse with TIPTON ST JOHN betting CULM UNITED 2-0.

Although Elmore stole the show in Division Two, PINHOE also had a great day beating third place BICKLEIGH 3-1. It was the Pins best this season with Dean Voaden and Vinny Conibere scoring and Bickleigh gave away an own goal.

A relieved COLATON RALEIGH pocketed three points winning 3-1 at WESTEXE whose Ben Curtis scored their only goal.

HONITON TOWN had to call off their match against the BEACON KNIGHTS and are still not yet underway on the second-half of their season.

The weather almost put paid to Division Three the leagues largest section, just two games surviving saw home wins for NEWTON ST CYRES and UPOTTERY.

In Division Four WOODBURY won 2-1 at BAMPTON Rhys Perry and Declan Bourne scoring, and were heartened by leaders HEAVITREE THIRDS dropping points at OKEHAMPTON RESERVES.

AXMOUTH UNITED drew 2-2 with neighbours SEATON RESERVES and the feature of the match was a first ever goal by James Guler with a 20 yarder that left veteran keeper Mark Rooke nowhere.

Division Five leaders CHERITON FITZPAINE found their touch as they spanked HATHERLEIGH TOWN 5-1. Dean and Darryl Pidgeon, Matt Holland, Mike Back and 16 year old Billy Conabeare, the managers son, with his ever goal scored for the cherries.

Tariq El-Zahri and Shane Tregale both scored twice as COUNTESS WEAR ran out 5-2 winners at BOW, and WESTEXE also won 5-2 at UPLOWMAN with one of their goals from Paul Walker an outstanding header.

OTTERTON are through to the final of the Geary Cup after their extra time 4-2 victory at STARCROSS GENERALS.

PERRY STREET & DISTRICT LEAGUE

Millwey Rise Reserves 2-3 Lyme Bantams
(Perry Street Div 3)
THE reserves poor run of form in the league continues in the pouring rain in an evenly contested local derby.

The returning Levi Hoole was a handful throughout and scored Millwey's first, with Keith Forsey scoring the second from the penalty spot. There were three penalties given during the game, two were scored and one was missed. Rise were 2-1 up at half-time.

Thursday, April 11
Millwey Rise 5 North Atlantic 1 (Devon Intermediate Cup Final @ Newton Abbott FC)
WHAT A special night in the history of Millwey Rise AFC! Rise in the end won comfortably 5-1 in a game that was full of incidents.

Rise striker Sam Dibling showed his class scoring a well taken hat-trick while the other goals came from substitutes Brad-Lee Miller and Nathen Womersley.

Sam Dibling was named man of the match, but many would say Rise goalkeeper Ashley Hall could also be given that award, after a string of good saves and most importantly saving a penalty, when Millwey were 2-1 up, which was the turning point of the match.

Around 60 supporters travelled down to support the team and see them make up from the disappointment of losing in the same cup final last year.

Rise manager Kevin Turner told Pulman's View Sport:

"We were dominant in the last 25 minutes – it was good to see us win the cup playing with such style."

The victory laid to rest the ghost of 12 months ago when they were beaten in the final at the same venue on penalties by Morley Sports after a 2-2 draw.

Millwey chairman Doug Thompson was understandably proud of the team, he said: "I'm absolutely ecstatic, the boys have don't brilliantly to bounce back from last season's disappointment and go one better this time. They were helped by some fantastic support and would like to thank all those that travelled down on Wednesday evening.

Thompson and the club are hopeful of adding more silverware this season with the Rise Reserve team looking forward to two cup final appearances beginning with the Bill Bailey Final against Combe A at Beaminster on Thursday and then the John Fowler final against Ilminster Town A at Bridport (date to be confirmed).

Millwey Rise v Winsham (Perry Street Premier)
Saturday, April 13th
MILLWEY'S match up against top of the table Winsham was abandoned after 60 minutes, by the referee Martin Ives, due to the fact the rain had made the pitch unsafe.

At that time Winsham were 3-0 up, through some well taken finishes in less than ideal playing conditions. Millwey's next game is against Ilminster Reserves at Harry's field on Tuesday night (6.15pm ko).

Millwey Rise Resv Hinton St George (Perry Street Div 3)
THE game was postponed, due to the fact Hinton St George couldn't raise a side.

In the reserves next game they will be looking for revenge in the Bill Bailey Cup Final at Beaminster FC against Combe A (6.15pm ko) on Thursday night, in a replay of last years final where Combe A came out on top 2-1.

Seven-mile Honiton Hippo race takes centre stage

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

LAST WEEKEND AVR had great success in the seven mile multi-terrain Honiton Hippo. As the name suggests, this is not a clean run and with two river crossings plus crawling through a muddy pond under a net, keeping dry was not an option.

Congratulations to Tim Lenton for winning in 50:21, he was just ahead of Alex Todd in 51:33. Eleanor Wood was the first lady 55, 35th overall in 1:06:48 just one second ahead of the over 60 champion Dave Thomas. Myrtle Croad had a super run, he was 29th in 1:04:47 and Steve Reynolds 54th, 1:12:21, this week beating his mukka Geoff Woodward who was 57th, 1:12:26. Alison Bowskill was 76th, 1:17:51 and Alan Morbey 116th, 1:28:33. Janet Woodward and Gill Day ran together, finishing joint 135th in 1:36:48.

Youngsters are not included from the fun as there was the 3K Hippo Calf event just for them. Ollie Caute ran superbly to win the under 16 boys event, 3rd overall in 12:42. Ethan Day was next home, 13th in 14:01 with Jack Fitzgerald one place adrift in 14:13. Max Bowskill was 28th, 15:14 and Alice Fitzhenry 35th, 16:15. Many thanks to Honiton RC for putting on yet another great event.

Early Sunday morning Tim Sibley, James Sibley and Simon D'Albertanson travelled to Portland to take part in the Osprey Sprint Triathlon. For Tim and James it was their first time attempting a Triathlon.

The event included a 300m pool swim, 20km bike ride out to the light house on the end of Portland Bill and back followed by a 5km run by Portland Harbour. A very strong southerly wind for the exposed cycle and run made for testing conditions.

Out of the 165 starters Tim finished 32nd in 1:13:52, James was 68th in 1:19:06 and Simon 86th in 1:21:07. Timings where as follows: Tim swim 7:00 bike 42:20 run 21:36. James swim 6:50 bike 45:05 run 24:17. Simon swim 6:55 bike 45:31 run 26:31.

A tad further away Lesley Adams ran the 5K Cannon Hill, Birmingham, parkrun finishing 193rd in 27:42.

■ HIPPO GANG: All the Axe Valley runners that took park in Honitons very own Hippo race last Sunday.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey

HONITON Running Club's very own Honiton Hippo took place last Sunday. The terrain was extremely muddy and even though runners waded through the River Otter right at the end of the race giving them a brief wash, they were still plastered almost from head to foot as the field out of the river seemed to be the muddiest part of the whole run. Runners were taken through woods, fields, paths and roads all managing to boast a hill or two.

Half-way through the race runners are taken down a steep hill before entering the Land Rover Experience just to climb all the way to the top of it again! Runners are then treated to a Land Rover Experience of their own with the ground pre churned by four wheel drive vehicles.

The race was won by local Axe Valley Runner Tim Lenton in a time of 50 minutes 21 seconds and the first lady was Ellie Sutcliffe of Exmouth Harriers in 58:42.

Although many Honiton Running Club members were involved with organisation and marshaling, some did manage to run. First home was Ian Stewart in 58:15 in 10th place. Amazingly the next two in for Honiton were both two of the older juniors with Henry Riddle coming 15th in 1:01:39 and Findlay Fuller 19th in 1:02:05. Suzanne Spiller was the 1st Honiton lady home coming 3rd lady overall in 26th place in 1:04:22.

Other Honiton runners' results: 21st Jarrod Brown 1:02:05, 34th Richard Harris 1:06:43, 45th Tom Dunn 1:09:05, 46th Vernon Gillard 1:09:21, 47th Simon Spiller 1:09:45, 72nd Helen Davy 1:16:42, 75th Pippa Westall 1:17:04, 77th Sarah Warren 1:17:55, 87th Esme Wilson 1:20:11, 105 Hayden Adamson 1:25:04, 107 Pete Lyus 1:25:11, 110th Jo Jo Davey 1:26:49, 117th Carol Turnham 1:28:55, 130th Wendy Le Masurier 1:34:44, 138th Wendy Williams 1:39:43. There were 171 finishers.

The Hippo Calf, which is mainly aimed at juniors aged 9 and over, took place at the same time. It is approximately 3K and starts with the same route as the beginning of the main race. Much to the disappointment of many juniors, organisers decided the river was too swollen to risk taking the youngsters across this year. This did mean that finishing times were much quicker. The race was won by Sam Pyne in a time of 12:07.

First back for Honiton was Jack Elsom in 12:49 in 4th place overall making him 2nd U16 boy. Arthur Heeler-Frood was 5th overall and 2nd U11 boy in a time of 13:22. Harry Whiteley also gained a prize for 3rd U16 boy finishing 7th overall in 13:33. Honiton girls did very well too with Sasha Davy winning her U13 girl category coming 19th overall in 14:27. Honiton girls took all 3 top spots in the U16 group with Florence Swan coming 1st in 13:48, Isabel Helston 2nd in 14:22 and Morgan Davy 3rd in 14:25.There were 54 finishers. The primary school team cup was awarded to Redstart Primary School, Chard for the first time.

There were plenty of other Honiton junior members achieving some very creditable results including: 6th Aidan Harrison 13:31, 10th Olly Talbot 13:54, 11th Max Helston 13:56, 12th Harry Boswell 13:58, 16th Iain Ross 14:19, 21st Thomas Lilley 14:34, 24th Sam Taylor 14:49, 29th Josh Rowe 15:28, 40th Hannah Land 18:28, 41st James Oak 18:47, 44th Verity Fuller 19:03, 45th Ella Harvey 19:06, 46th Megan Burton 19:28 There were 54 finishers.

Thanks to the many people who supported and assisted in any way and especially the landowners for allowing hundreds of muddy feet to cross their land.

Meanwhile, a little further afield, Stephen Boyes took part in the Brighton Marathon. Despite the strong winds and not feeling quite as fit as he would like, he managed to finish in a time of 3 hours 39 minutes.

Chiefs secure South West One Division status for next season

SIDMOUTH 25 CLEVE 15

THE CHIEFS secured another season in South West One West with this hard-fought win against fellow strugglers Cleve.

Despite a muddy surface and persistent rain, this was a thoroughly entertaining and tense encounter between two fully committed teams. The Chiefs had to come from behind and the result was in doubt until deep into injury time. In the end, a superior kicking game, vital in the conditions, proved to be decisive. Dan Retter's pin-point precision and Tom Whelan's siege gun distance kept Cleve on the back foot, while man-of-the-match Whelan and wingers Sam Meadham and James Powell formed a rock solid back three.

Cleve started the game firing on all cylinders. Profiting from a couple of handling errors, they were soon pressing on the Sidmouth line. In the fourth minute they drove a lineout maul over the line for the hooker to touch down an unconverted try.

They were soon back in Sidmouth territory, where the right winger crossed in the corner but was recalled for a forward pass. However, the pressure was soon rewarded, when the left winger penetrated the defence to set up a try for the number eight. The full-back added the conversion.

The Chiefs replied almost immediately with a long range Tom Whelan penalty. This seemed to galvanise his side as the Chiefs went on the attack for the first time. Jack Pyne linked with scrum half Jonny Hamill to exploit the wide blindside of a scrum 30 metres out. Whelan joined the line from deep to cut through and outpace the cover for an unconverted try.

With Sidmouth continuing to hold the upper hand, Cleve lost a forward to the sin bin. The Chiefs took advantage by adding ten vital points in first-half injury time. Tom Whelan kicked a second penalty before Dan Retter produced an inch-perfect diagonal kick, which Sam Meadham followed up to catch on the full and cross unopposed in the corner. Whelan added the conversion to make the halftime score 18-12.

As the second-half progressed, and conditions deteriorated, the Cleve pack gained the upper hand up front and they soon reduced the arrears with a penalty kicked by the replacement fly half.

However, he failed with two easier attempts, and his side could make little impression with ball in hand against a determined Sidmouth defence.

The pivotal play of the game came with five minutes to go. Cleve kicked a penalty to the corner for an anticipated catch-and-drive attempt. Instead the Chiefs forwards stole the ball and Dan Retter cleared upfield. In injury time, another slide rule Retter kick pinned Cleve back into their 22, where the Chiefs were awarded a scrum. The ball was quickly transferred to the backs and Glenn Channing broke through the first line of defence. Two rucks later, Dan Trim powered his way over from ten metres out for the decisive score. Whelan added the conversion and the Chiefs played out the remaining few minutes comfortably.

Sidmouth Preview

ON SATURDAY the Chiefs complete their season with a trip to Clevedon. A win could see them finish in a respectable eighth place.

At the Blackmore the Quins entertain Okehampton for their final Merit Table game. The kick off is at 3pm.

Came Down tee up shot at Gleneagles glory

A DREAM final at the 2014 Ryder Cup venue Gleneagles is up for grabs for amateur Tim Old and his Came Down PGA professional Nick Rodgers in Europe's biggest pro-am competition – The Lombard Trophy.

Old teed up a chance to tread the fairways of the PGA Centenary course at the famous Scottish resort between September 3-4 when he won his club qualifying competition with a nett score of 68.

He and Rodgers now advance to the regional final at Bovey Castle Golf Club on Friday, June 28th, where they will play one round of better-ball medal play with the chance to secure one of 16 spots available for the 36-hole grand final.

Lombard, the UK's largest asset finance provider and sponsor of the trophy, added their congratulations, "Well done on a great achievement. This is a highly prestigious event which provides a tremendous opportunity for those taking part. We are delighted to be associated with it."

The tournament attracts more than 50,000 competitors from across Great Britain and Ireland and is now its 29th competitive year, marking a welcome return as title sponsor for Lombard who originally sponsored the tournament from 1995 to 2006.

The PGA National Pro-Am Championship has a total prize fund of £80,000, with the winning professional at the grand final taking home a cheque for £12,000.

Tim Old lives in Dorchester. He plays off a handicap of 12.

Match Report - Saturday, April 13th
IN A WEEK where Seaton Town Under 11s were scheduled to play three matches, they only played once, on Saturday morning at Feniton, the other two matches again being postponed due to the weather.

Seaton were expecting a tough match against Feniton as they are a good side, Feniton opened the scoring with a well struck shot, but then Seaton played some of their best football so far this season with Edward Kenworthy scoring three and Drew Ado-Smith one to lead 4-1 at half-time.

In the second-half Seaton were playing into the wind and rain which made the going tough, but they continued with their excellent play with Edward Kenworthy scoring a futher two goals to win the match 6-1.

Alfie Tucker-Vincent was solid in goal, Jamie Davey had a great game in defence and the midfield of Ella Richardson, Alfie Bullmore and Drew Ado-Smith put on a very strong performance in the centre of the pitch, the whole team were named man-of-the-match.

Marvellous Millwey crowned county champions

By Howard Larcombe

A HAT-TRICK from Sam Dibling helped Millwey Rise to their first ever Devon Intermediate Cup after a 5-1 victory over Bideford-based Northside Atlantic at Newton Abbott last Wednesday evening.

Rise manager Kevin Turner told Pulman's View Sport: "We were nervous for the opening 15 minutes but the goal eventually settled us. They went more direct after the break and came into the game more.

"Ashley's (Hall) penalty save was crucial. He was awesome and pushed Sam (Dibling) for the MoM with some superb saves at vitals moments – he certainly repaid my faith in selecting him.

Over in the South West Peninsula league Sidmouth Town are due to face third from bottom Plymstock this weekend. Town are currently on a three-game unbeaten run, albeit all draws, and will go into the game full of confidence in the quest to climb off bottom spot.

Sidmouth narrowly lost 2-1 in the reverse fixture earlier in the season. This weekend's fixture promises to be just as tight with both sides fighting for every point. Axminster Town travel to Budleigh salterton on Wednesday in the quest for their first win in eight league matches.

Feniton's scheduled trip to Exmouth Amateurs was one of two games that were cancelled in the Premier Division. The table toppers are due to welcome fifth placed Morchard Bishop this weekend. This is the first time these two sides are meeting in the league this season; they face each other in the reverse fixture the following weekend (27th). Beer Albion did not have a fixture at the weekend as they travel to joint bottom Exmouth Amateurs this weekend.

Colyton lie third from bottom in Division one and are in danger of slipping into the bottom two as they face high-flying Chard Town 2nds. Chard are on a seven-game winning streak heading into the match, the last time these two sides met Chard ran out convincingly 4-0 winners.

Colaton Raleigh came out on top in a tightly contested Derby with Honiton Town on Wednesday (10th). Raleigh ran out 3-2 winners, which sees them climb above Honiton in the league at a crucial stage in the season. Raleigh were the only local team to play in Division Two on Saturday.

They continued their good form by comfortably beating their hosts Westexe Rovers 3-1, which all but consolidates Raleighs place in Division Two.

Honiton are involved in another local derby this weekend when they host Sidmouth Town 2nds.
